

Challenge America to Be Featured on Peter Greenberg Worldwide Radio Show

Tune in this Saturday, December 19 to the Peter Greenberg Worldwide Radio show to hear Peter's interview of Challenge America founder and executive director Houston Cowan.

Snowmass Village, CO (December 18, 2009) - World-renowned travel news journalist, CBS News travel editor, and nationally syndicated radio host Peter Greenberg paid a visit to Snowmass Village earlier this week to record his weekly radio show. A chance encounter with NBC News correspondent Kerry Sanders, in town to film this week's first-ever C.A.M.O. (Challenge Aspen Military Opportunities) winter mountain retreat for female injured military, led Greenberg to invite both Sanders and Challenge America founder and executive director Houston Cowan to be guests on his show to talk about the retreat and to introduce the Challenge America organization and initiative. Catch the interviews this Saturday, December 19 on any of the following:

- local AM radio station 1340 from 9-11 a.m. MST
- XM/Sirius Satellite radio channel 158 from 9p.m. - 12 a.m. EST
- streaming live and via podcast on http://www.petergreenberg.com/?page\_id=662

Happy listening!
